

Explore Forensics Assignment

This is the website with the reading that you will need to complete this assignment

<http://www.exploreforensics.co.uk/asphyxiation.html>.

1. What is Asphyxiation?

---

---

2. If the investigator is looking for signs of asphyxiation what are they looking for?

---

---

3. What crimes are most likely to see bite marks?

---

---

4. What shape will a bite mark be?

---

---

5. What are signs of Blunt Force Trauma?

---

---

6. Do the common signs of Blunt Force Trauma always have to be present to prove Blunt Force Trauma was used? Explain.

---

---

---

7. Where are defensive wounds commonly found?

---

---

8. If defensive wounds are found on the victim where would you look for evidence of the identity of the perpetrator and what would you hope to find?

---

---

9. What happens when a person drowns? Explain.

---

---

---

10. Is drowning easy to prove? Explain.

---

---

---

11. What is the easiest way to rule out Accidental Death?

---

---

12. What is dry drowning?

---

---

13. What does a pathologist look for in an electrocution?

---

---

14. Electrocution is normally the result of what kind of deaths?

---

---

15. An Entrance wound that has what is known as an 'abrasion ring' is from what kind of gun shot?

---

---

16. What is "tattooing" sometimes referred as?

---

---

17. How are exit wounds different than entrance wounds?

---

---

18. Where would you look on a body for ligature marks?

---

---

19. What color are you looking for when looking for ligature marks?

---

---

20. Why would the pathologist also check the tongue and larynx of the victim post mortem?

---

---

21. What is a common toxic gas death?

---

---

22. How can a pathologist be able to tell if an individual has died as a result of any of these gases being inhaled?

---

---