

Introduction and Physical Evidence Test

1. Describe a piece of evidence, which would be the responsibility of the Physical Science Unit.
2. Describe a piece of evidence, which would be the responsibility of the Biology Unit.
3. Describe a piece of evidence, which would be the responsibility of the Firearms Unit.
4. What kind of analysis should be performed with a suicide note found at a crime scene?
5. What type of information would you hope to get from drugs found at a crime scene?
6. Which forensic unit should blood be sent to?
7. If several grains of dirt were to be found on the floor of a crime scene, what type of information would you hope to get?
8. To which forensic unit should a green leafy plant that was to be found trampled at a crime scene be sent?
9. What type of information would you hope to gain from a paint chip found at a crime scene?
10. If a pistol and some ammunition was to be found at a crime scene, what kind of analysis should be performed?