

Easy Peasy All-in-One Homeschool British Literature

Vocabulary Quiz #2 – Day 20

Consider the meanings of the following words. Then choose the proper definition for the word root or part from the box.

human	Earth	feeling, suffering, disease	to please	love	love
false, fake	name	opinion	light	self	word, speech

- amicable, enamored, amiable, amateur
What does the word root “am” mean? _____
- placate, complacent, placid
What does the word root “plac” mean? _____
- lucid, luminary, lustrous, illuminate
What does the word root “luc/lum/lus” mean? _____
- loquacious, elocution, eloquent, soliloquy
What does the word root “loc/loq/loqu” mean? _____
- autograph, autobiography, autopilot, autonomy
What does the word root “auto” mean? _____
- compassion, apathy, patient, passionate
What does the word root “pas/pat/path” mean? _____
- pseudonym, pseudoscience, pseudo-classic, pseudointellectual
What does the word root “pseudo” mean? _____
- misnomer, anonymous, synonym, nominee
What does the word root “nom/nym” mean? _____

9. dogmatic, orthodox, paradox, dogma

What does the word root "dog/dox" mean? _____

10. Philadelphia, philosophy, bibliophile, philanthropy

What does the word root "phil" mean? _____

11. anthropology, android, anthropomorphism, androgen

What does the word root "anthro/andro" mean? _____

12. subterranean, terrarium, terrestrial, territory

What does the word root "terra" mean? _____

Easy Peasy All-in-One Homeschool British Literature

Vocabulary Quiz #2 – Day 20 Answer Key

1. What does the word root “am” mean? love
2. What does the word root “plac” mean? to please
3. What does the word root “luc/lum/lus” mean? light
4. What does the word root “loc/loq/loqu” mean? word, speech
5. What does the word root “auto” mean? self
6. What does the word root “pas/pat/path” mean? feeling, suffering, disease
7. What does the word root “pseudo” mean? false, fake
8. What does the word root “nom/nym” mean? name
9. What does the word root “dog/dox” mean? opinion
10. What does the word root “phil” mean? love
11. What does the word root “anthro/andro” mean? human
12. What does the word root “terra” mean? earth